

St. Cecilia's Public School
Junior Wing, Vikaspuri
Co-Curricular Activities (July-August)
Exhibition

It is always a sheer pleasure to see one's work getting acknowledged and appreciated. The creative abilities of the students were put at a huge display for the parents to witness. Students came along with their parents to have a glimpse of the posters, cards and models made by the tiny tots.

Janmashtami

Janmashtami brings lot of energy and the spirit of festivity amongst one and all. Students were adorned in yellow clothes and acted like Radha and Krishan. It was a beautiful spectacle to witness the children playing such roles and enhancing their knowledge about the festival and its significance.

Independence Day

70th Independence Day was a grand day in the history of our country. Students enjoyed themselves while raising the tricolour in their hands. They were also dressed according to the colours of the Tiranga. With the echo of patriotic songs heard in all the four directions, students celebrated the nationalist spirit of Independence Day with great fervour and zeal.

Lemonade Party

In the prevailing months, when the heat and humidity is at its peak, children savoured the cool lemonades in the school premises. A lemonade party was arranged for them to relish the delicious and beneficial drink and also feel refreshed and joyous. Lemonade was served to all the children.

Rainy Season

Children consider rainy season to be the most enjoyable season. To celebrate the onset of monsoon, children enjoyed themselves by getting photographed with each other; holding the umbrella in their hands. The smiles on their faces clearly indicated their happiness on welcoming their favourite time of the year.

Raksha Bandhan

Raksha Bandhan is known as an extremely pious and sacred festival, denoting the bond between a brother and a sister. Children showed their creativity by making beautiful rakhis to mark the importance of this day. Girls also tied rakhis on the wrists of boys to form this unique bond between them.

Western dance & Class party

Children tapped their tiny feet on the beautiful rhythms and melodies to enjoy themselves. With everyone singing and dancing around, there were carefree and excited smiles galore. The bright faces were a clear evidence of their energetic mood.
