Subject: Commencement of Academic Session of Class XI – 2018

Dear Parents,

The School constantly endeavours to take sincere efforts for the betterment of the students and enhancement in qualitative education imparted to them. We all are aware that Class XI is a turning point in the life of students as they step towards the selection of specific subjects that help them achieve their desired higher career options after Class XII.

Please note to empower our students academically, school will start the new academic session of Class XI 2018 from 16.04.2018. This step will be very beneficial for the student's subject knowledge enhancement and understanding as their time will be utilized for academic pursuits.

Hence each and every learner of Class XI will be able to better his / her own performance and improve his / her academic result. The admission in Class XI in the month of April will be granted on Provisional basis subject to CBSE Class X result – 2018.

At present the school is offering the following stated streams. These Subject Streams will be allocated as per Class X Pre-Board II result of your ward. The exact cut – off percentage for selection of stream and Fees to be paid will be notified in due course of time.
