Baisakhi

Baisakhi is a spring harvest festival for Sikhs and Hindus and is usually celebrated on April 13 or 14 every year. It marks the Sikh New year and commemorates the formation of Khalsa panth of warriors under Guru Gobind Singhji 1699. It also marks the solar new year festival of the Hindus. Keeping the spirit of the festival in mind, a painting activity was designed to bring out these elements and also to familiarize them with this important festival.

Students were asked to draw flowing crops with a sickle and they also drew DHOL signifying the festivities associated with Baisakhi.

Students enthusiastically went about with their work and their paintings showed their creative side too..

A gratitude prayer and the song for the farmers and their contribution to the society was posted for the students

The festival of Baisakhi was marked by heartfelt appreciation and thanksgiving.
