The way we bring them up will determine the future of the country”

Children's Day is celebrated to increase awareness on the rights and education of children every year on November 14. India's first Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru was born on this day in 1889. The Prime Minister, commonly known as Chacha Nehru among children, considered children the real strength of a nation and foundation of society.

Pandit Nehru was very fond of kids and advocated children's education as he strongly believed that they were the future leaders of the nation. He was a strong believer of instilling rich moral virtues in children. He was of the opinion that children should be moulded from a young age properly so that they can become productive and responsible citizens of the country.

To celebrate the birth anniversary of Chacha Nehru, our school organised fun and motivational functions including fancy dress, role model, recitation and express yourself, pictorial quiz, song and dance, power point presentation etc. The function began with a prayer. The significance and importance of this day was well-explained by the teachers.

Children's Day, therefore, emphasises the importance of showering love and affection to each child. It is celebrated with great fervour and enthusiasm across the country. Every child cherishes this day as they get to enjoy it to the fullest. It is important to remember that this special occasion is celebrated to take Pandit Nehru's dream of providing quality education to each child so that they can become the future building blocks of the nation and contribute towards the greater benefit of the society.

The students participated in the mentioned activities with great zeal and enthusiasm. They realized the importance of education and vowed to work hard in their future endeavours and make their country proud.
