

St Cecilia's Public School
"Dance is the hidden language of the soul" – Class II Cultural Presentation

On 04th and 5th December, 2019 respectively, Class II students of St. Cecilia's Public School, Vikas Puri presented their cultural presentation on Dance forms of the world with enthusiasm and zeal. The event witnessed mass participation by the students wholeheartedly towards the success of this grand event. The triumph was made possible by the relentless efforts of our Madam Principal Ms Inderpreet Bhumra, teachers and the students.

The dignitaries of the day Madam Manager Mrs. R Bhumra, Madam Principal Mrs. Inderpreet, Academic Advisor Mr G P Sharma graced the occasion to encourage and motivate the commendable efforts of the little students. Proud parents of Class II students were spellbound to witness the commendable presentations put up by their wards.

The event started off with a prayer by the music choir students to seek divine blessings. The theme for the cultural presentation was Dances of the World which was presented meticulously by students. It was a journey into thriving compassion among characters and heart touching dance form scenes interwoven into a dramatically overwhelming presentation that showcased bonds of global unity between various countries and continents – Asia, Europe, North America and Africa. The dances had musical elements to bring symphony and melody into life. The vibrant and colourful presentation received huge applause for their scintillating performance.

Madam Manager in her address appreciated the worthy efforts of the teachers and students. She also emphasized on the importance of education among students to create confident and happy students. The audience was visibly impressed by the impeccable performance showcased by the students across different sections of class II.

Madam Principal in her speech appreciated the choice of theme and its immense impact on the minds of the children. She spoke that the future is theirs so shape it to achieve the best for the society and themselves. She was astonished to observe young children of Class II dancing with perfect coordination. Madam also acknowledged the efforts of the students and thanked the esteemed guests and parents for their precious time from the busy schedule to attend the cultural presentation.

The event witnessed happy and gleeful participation of the parents and a sense of pride in the parents.
