

St. Cecilia's Public School Dussehera

Dussehera also known as Vijaydashmi, is major Indian festival celebrated on the tenth day of Ashvin month according to the Hindu calendar. This year too this festival of victory of goodness over evil was celebrated in school with a lot of religious zeal and fervour. The program began with prayer and a message on Dussehera. Various activities were conducted in the classes such as mask making of Ravana, Fancy dress on the different characters of Ramayana. The children participated enthusiastically in all the activities.

Class I : Express yourself (Ramayana Characters).

Class II : Fancy Dress (Ramayana Characters).

Class III : Making of mask of Ravana, Screening of movies-Valmiki Ramayana.

Class IV and V : Ravana mask making activities.