“You must be the change you wish to see in the world”

Even today the power of Gandhiji's words inspires us to change the world by bringing a change in ourselves. Gandhiji, known as the Father of the Nation stands as an apostle of peace, truth and non-violence. He is lovingly called "Bapu". His contribution in the freedom struggle of India is beyond description in words. We celebrate his birthday and Lal Bahadur Shastri's birthday (the second Prime Minister of India) on 2nd October every year.

To commemorate the birth anniversary of Gandhiji various activities were conducted. Art activities based on Dussehra and Gandhi Jayanti were conducted in the class. Students prepared masks of Ravana and made sketches related to Gandhiji with great zeal and enthusiasm. A life skill session on Dussehra and Gandhij Jayanti was taken up by the Co-ordinator, Ms. Meena Rawat.

A special assembly was conducted by the primary wing. After the prayer, a heart touching song highlighting the principles of both Lal Bahadur Shastriji and Gandhiji was sung. This was followed by an incredible performance by Anjaneya Vashisht (IV-B) who sang one of the favourite bhajans of Gandhi and played the same on the keyboard.

A wonderful presentation by the students of Class IV-B giving an insight into Gandhiji's principles, teachings and the various freedom movements was well –received and appreciated by all.

Eco Club organized a very interesting activity wherein a Ravana effigy was arranged in the centre of the stage. There were balloons all over its body. Students came one by one and pierced the balloons signifying the end of the vices such as ego, hatred, jealousy, anger etc.

Madam Principal appreciated the efforts put in by students and teachers for such a splendid show. Ma'am encouraged each one to follow the path of Gandhiji's ideals and principles of Truth, Honesty, Love, Happiness, Non-violence and Brotherhood.
